

Digging

I don't take things for granted
Today I need a cigarette
I have no inspiration
But somehow I'll release myself

Digging for a love song

I'm digging for a love song
I miss your tender touch my friend
Your beautiful desire
A kiss that makes me faint again

Digging for a love song

I'm digging for a love song
A love song
I'm digging for a love song
A love song
I'm digging for a love song
A love song
I'm digging for a love song
A love song
