

Kay

Kay, Kay, Kay
What are you doing to your face, face, face?
I saw you talking to those gentlemen
Are you going insane?

Kay, Kay, Kay
You have your temper you have grace, grace, grace...
Your eyes are blurry you became a fake
Are you going insane?

Kay oh Kay
The world is on your hands
Kay oh Kay
Are you on crack today?

Kay, Kay, Kay
What are you doing to yourself, self, self?
I heard your breathing methylated air
Are you going insane?

Kay, Kay, Kay
I'm going after you
So wait, wait, wait...
Is this for real or it's just a play
Are you going insane?
